The screenshot shows the Numbers application window titled "Personal Budget.numbers". The interface includes a menu bar with options like View, Zoom, Add Category, Insert, Table, Chart, Text, Shape, Media, Comment, Collaborate, Format, and Organize. A central dialog box asks, "Would you like to upgrade this spreadsheet?" with buttons for "Edit a Copy", "Cancel", and "Upgrade". The spreadsheet content is organized into several sections:

- Monthly Net Income: A table with columns for Income Type and Amount. It lists Monthly Net Income ($4,500) and Other Monthly Income ($2,500), totaling Available Cash of $7,000.
- Monthly Expenses: A table with columns for Expense and Costs. It lists various expenses like Mortgage, Taxes, Car Payment, etc., totaling $3,695.
- Planned Expenses: A table with columns for Expenditure, Month, and Amount. It lists items like November vacation, Home for the holidays, etc., totaling $2,230.
- Savings: A bar chart showing the cumulative savings from January to December, starting at $0 and reaching approximately $45,000 by the end of the year.
